PACIFIC BOYCHOIR TOURS TO DENMARK IN NOVEMBER

OAKLAND-The Pacific Boychoir Academy (PBA) will fly to Denmark on October 31st for a three concert series in Denmark. They will be singing with the Herning Boy Choir under the direction of Mads Bille. This is the fourth international tour for the Pacific Boychoir this year. They have toured in Canada, in July in Brazil, in August again in Brazil with Kent Nagano.

Maurice Durufle's (1910-1986) Requiem is based on Gregorian plainchant Mass for the Dead and was written in 1947. The Pacific Boychoir sang the Requiem earlier this year with the Pacific Collegium in two outstanding concerts, which received great critical acclaim.

Kevin Fox is the Founding Director of the Pacific Boychoir Academy. The PBA is in its ninth year. In those nine years, the Boychoir has toured locally, nationally and internationally. It has received a Grammy Award and has five recordings with the latest in post-production. The recordings include: a CD of all Britten, one of the Australian Tour, one of early music, one of Spirituals and the final offering of the Bach German Masses. PBA sings regularly with the San Francisco Symphony, American Bach Soloists, Pacific Collegium, and other professional musical organizations

The Pacific Boychoir is a 501 (c) 3 not for profit corporation dedicated to excellence in music education and performance. If you would like more information about the Pacific Boychoir, please go to www.pacificboychoir.org or call 510.652.4722.
